FOR COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE
FOR
Senate Bill No. 170

(SENATORS BAILEY, WALKER AND PLYMALE, original sponsors)

[Passed March 13, 1999; in effect ninety days from passage.]

AN ACT to amend and reenact article two-d, chapter fifteen of said code; and to amend and reenact section three, article ten of said chapter, all relating to providing safety and security at the capitol complex and other state facilities; setting forth legislative findings; establishing division of protective services; purpose and continuation of the division; providing for a director of the division and establishing qualifications therefor; establishing powers and duties of director and members; legislative rules; interagency agreement; status report; oath of office; applicability of article; and authorizing division to cooperate with other law-enforcement agencies.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That article two-d, chapter fifteen of said code be amended and reenacted; and that section three, article ten of said chapter be amended and reenacted, all to read as follows:

ARTICLE 2D. DIVISION OF PROTECTIVE SERVICES.

§15-2D-1. Legislative findings.

1 The Legislature finds and declares that citizens, state
2 employees and visitors who park, attend functions,
3 conduct business or work at the capitol complex and other
4 state facilities should be safe and secure. The Legislature
5 further finds and declares that it is in the public interest to 6 establish a division within the department of military 7 affairs and public safety for the purpose of providing 8 safety and security to individuals who visit, conduct
9 business or work at the capitol complex and other state
10 facilities.

§15-2D-2. Division established; purpose; continuation; appointment and qualifications of director.

1 (a) The state facilities protection division within the 2 department of military affairs and public safety shall
3 hereafter be designated the division of protective services.
4 The purpose of the division is to provide safety and 5 security at the capitol complex and other state facilities.
6 Pursuant to the provisions of article ten, chapter four of 7 this code, the division shall continue to exist until the first
8 day of July, two thousand two.
9
10 (b) The governor shall appoint, with the advice and 11 consent of the Senate, the director of the division whose 12 qualifications shall include at least ten years of service as 13 a law-enforcement officer with at least three years in a
14 supervisory law-enforcement position, the successful
15 completion of supervisory and management training, and 16 the professional training required for police officers at the 17 West Virginia state police academy or an equivalent
18 professional law-enforcement training at another state,
19 federal or United States military institution.
§15-2D-3. Duties and powers of the director and members.

(a) The director is responsible for the control and supervision of the division. The director and any member of the division specified by the director may carry designated weapons and have the same powers of arrest and law enforcement in Kanawha county as members of the West Virginia state police as set forth in subsections (b) and (d), section twelve, article two of this chapter.

(b) The director may:

(1) Employ necessary personnel, all of whom shall be classified exempt, assign them the duties necessary for the efficient management and operation of the division, and specify members who may carry, without license, weapons designated by the director;

All uniforms, arms, weapons and other property furnished to members of the division by the state of West Virginia is and remains the property of the state.

(5) Appoint security officers to provide security on premises owned or leased by the state of West Virginia;

(6) Upon request by the superintendent of the West Virginia state police, provide security for the speaker of the West Virginia House of Delegates, the president of the West Virginia Senate, the governor, or a justice of the West Virginia supreme court of appeals;

(7) Gather information from a broad base of employees at and visitors to the capitol complex to determine their security needs and develop a comprehensive plan to maintain and improve security at the capitol complex based upon those needs; and

(8) Assess safety and security needs and make recommendations for safety and security at any proposed or existing state facility as determined by the secretary of the department of military affairs and public safety, upon request of the secretary of the department to which the facility is or will be assigned.

(c) The director shall:

(1) On or before the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred ninety-nine, propose legislative rules for promulgation in accordance with the provisions of article three, chapter twenty-nine-a of this code. The rules shall, at a minimum:

(A) Establish qualification, training and certification requirements for members of the division, which shall include the basic academy training standards established by the governor's committee on crime, delinquency and prevention;

(B) Establish ranks and the duties of officers within the membership of the division; and

(C) Establish a personnel policy and grievance procedure.

(2) On or before the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred ninety-nine, enter into an interagency agreement with the secretary of the department of military affairs and public safety and the secretary of the department of administration, which delineates their respective rights and authorities under any contracts or subcontracts for security personnel. A copy of the interagency agreement shall be delivered to the governor, the president of the West Virginia Senate and the speaker of the West Virginia House of Delegates, and a copy shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state and shall be a public record.

(3) Deliver a monthly status report to the speaker of the West Virginia House of Delegates and the president of the West Virginia Senate.
§15-2D-4. Oath of office.

(a) The director and each member of the division shall take and subscribe to an oath of office in conformity with article four, section five of the Constitution of the state of West Virginia.

(b) Any member serving on the effective date of this article shall take and subscribe to the oath within thirty days of the effective date of this section. Any member hired subsequent to the effective date of this section shall take and subscribe to the oath before entering upon the discharge of his or her duties. All oaths shall be filed and preserved in the office of the division of protective services.

§15-2D-5. Application of article.

(a) The provisions of this article shall not apply to the West Virginia Senate, the West Virginia House of Delegates, the West Virginia Legislature or the West Virginia supreme court of appeals, or to any part of the capitol complex under the supervision or control of the West Virginia Senate, the West Virginia House of Delegates, the West Virginia Legislature or the West Virginia supreme court of appeals, unless agreed to by the president of the West Virginia Senate, the speaker of the West Virginia House of Delegates, or jointly by the president of the West Virginia Senate and speaker of the West Virginia House of Delegates, or by order of the West Virginia supreme court of appeals, and then only to the extent that the president of the West Virginia Senate, the speaker of the West Virginia House of Delegates or the West Virginia supreme court of appeals agrees to such application, and then only to that part of the capitol complex under the supervision or control of the respective houses of the Legislature, individually or jointly, or of the court.

(b) The provisions of this article shall not limit or eliminate the jurisdiction of law-enforcement agencies at any state facility or the duty of law-enforcement agencies to respond to calls at any state facility.
