ENROLLED

COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE

FOR

H. B. 4296

(BY DELEGATES CRAIG, AMORES, MORGAN AND LEACH)

[Passed March 11, 2006; in effect ninety days from passage.]

AN ACT to amend the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, by adding thereto a new section, designated §55-7-18a, relating to providing employers with qualified immunity from liability for disclosing to a prospective employer job-related information reasonably believed to be adverse concerning a current or former employee; requiring written disclosure of the job-related information; and providing for the correction of false or misleading information.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, be amended by adding thereto a new section, designated §55-7-18a, to read as follows:

ARTICLE 7. ACTIONS FOR INJURIES.
§55-7-18a. Employer immunity from liability; disclosure of information regarding former employees.

(a) Any employer or his or her designated agent who discloses job-related information that may be reasonably considered adverse about a former or current employee to a prospective employer of the former or current employee is presumed to be acting in good faith and is immune from civil liability for the disclosure or its consequences: Provided, That the disclosure of such information pursuant to this subsection shall be in writing and a copy of any such disclosure shall be provided to the former or current employee at the time of disclosure.

(b) For the purposes of this section, the presumption of good faith is rebutted upon a showing, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the information disclosed was:

1. Knowingly false;
2. Disclosed with reckless disregard for the truth;
3. Deliberately misleading;
4. Rendered with malicious purpose toward the former or current employee; or
5. Disclosed in violation of a nondisclosure agreement or applicable law.

(c) For purposes of this section, “job-related information” means information concerning a person’s education, training, experience, qualifications, conduct and job performance which is offered for the purpose of providing criteria to evaluate the person’s suitability for employment.
(d) If an employer disclosed job-related information to a prospective employer of a former or current employee that was false or misleading, and if the current or former employee requests, then the employer shall give corrected information to every person or entity that is in the employer’s records as having received the original information, with a copy thereof to the former or current employee.
That Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills hereby certifies that the foregoing bill is correctly enrolled.
