3 after probable cause has been found to believe a juvenile has 4 committed a violation thereof, but before an adjudicatory hearing 5 on the petition, the court or a prosecuting attorney may direct or 6 allow a minor who engaged in such activity to participate in an 7 educational diversion program which meets the requirements of 8 subsection (b) of this section. The prosecutor or court may refer 9 the minor to the educational diversion program, as part of a pre-

15 pursuant to the provisions of section nine of this article.

16 (b) The West Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals may 17 develop an educational diversion program for minors who are

41 respective decisions to either abstain from filing the juvenile 42 petition or to dismiss the juvenile petition, as follows:

43 (1) If the minor has not previously been judicially deter-
44 mined to be delinquent, and the minor's activities represent a 45 first offense for a violation of section three-b, article eight-c, 46 chapter sixty-one of this code. the minor shall not be subject to 47 the requirements of said section, as long as he or she success-
