Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

1 That the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, be amended by adding thereto a new 2 article, designated §49-8-1, §49-8-2, §49-8-3, §49-8-4, §49-8-5 and §49-8-6, all to read as follows:

ARTICLE 8. SUPPORTING AND STRENGTHENING FAMILIES ACT.

§49-8-1. Legislative findings; statement of legislative purpose.

1 (a) The Legislature finds that in certain circumstances where a parent, guardian or legal 2 custodian of a child is temporarily unable to care for the child due to a crisis or other 3 circumstances, a less intrusive alternative to guardianship or the Department of Health and 4 Human Resources taking custody of the child should be available. In such circumstances, a 5 parent, guardian or legal custodian may benefit from the assistance of charitable organizations in 6 their community that assist families by providing safe, temporary care for children and support for 7 families during difficult times.

8 (b) It is the purpose of this article to ensure that a parent, guardian or legal guardian has 9 the right to provide for the temporary care of their child with the assistance of a qualified nonprofit 10 organization as set forth in this article.

§49-8-2. Definitions.

1 For purposes of this article:

2 (1) "Child" means an individual under eighteen years of age;

3 (2) "Qualified nonprofit organization" means a charitable or religious institution that is 4 exempt from federal income taxation under Section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986,
5 as an organization described by Section 501(c)(3) of that code, which assists the parent or legal 6 guardian of a child with the process of providing for the temporary care of a child through the 7 execution of a power of attorney as described in this section.

§49-8-3. Delegation of care and custody of a child

1 (a) The following shall apply only to situations where a parent, guardian or legal custodian
2 of a child provides for the temporary care and custody of a child with the assistance of a qualified
3 nonprofit organization. Nothing in this section shall be interpreted to restrict the rights of parents, 4 guardians or legal custodians providing for the care of children by power of attorney in other 5 contexts.

6 (b) A parent, guardian or legal custodian of a child may, by a properly executed power of 7 attorney, delegate to a person, for a period not to exceed one year, the care and custody of the 8 child.

9 (c) A parent, guardian or legal custodian may not delegate:

- 10 (1) The power to consent to marriage or adoption of the child;
- 11 (2) The performance or inducement of an abortion on or for the child; or
- 12 (3) The termination of parental rights to the child.

13 (d) A delegation of care and custody of a child, under this article, does not change or 14 modify any parental or legal rights, obligations, or authority established by an existing court order, 15 or deprive the parent, guardian or legal custodian of any parental or legal rights, obligations, or 16 authority regarding the custody, visitation, or support of the child.

17 (e) The parent, guardian or legal custodian of the child may revoke or withdraw this power
18 of attorney at any time. Upon the termination, expiration, or revocation of the power of attorney 19 the child shall be returned to the custody of the parent, guardian or legal custodian within forty-20 eight hours.

21 (f) Unless the authority is revoked or withdrawn by the parent, guardian or legal custodian, 22 the designee shall exercise parental or legal authority on a continuous basis without 23 compensation for the duration of the power of attorney.

24 (g) The care and custody of a child may only be delegated to the extent, and so long as,
25 the parent, guardian or legal custodian retains care and custody. If the rights of the parent, 26 guardian or custodian of the child are terminated, the power of attorney shall be deemed to be 27 revoked. A court that revokes the care and custody rights of a parent, guardian or legal custodian 28 shall notify the person to whom those parental rights has been delegated, and the child may 29 remain with that person until the court shall finalize the subsequent placement of the child:
30 Provided, That no period of placement with a person pursuant to the provisions of this article shall 31 be considered as a factor in a custody hearing in which a family member seeks to be awarded 32 custody of the child.

33 (h) The execution of a power of attorney by a parent, guardian or legal custodian does 34 not, without other evidence, constitute abandonment, abuse or neglect unless the parent, 35 guardian or legal custodian fails to either take custody of the child or execute a new power of 36 attorney after the one year time limit has elapsed: Provided, That nothing in this article may be 37 interpreted to prevent the West Virginia Bureau for Children and Families or law enforcement from 38 investigating allegations of abuse, abandonment, neglect or other mistreatment of a child.

39 (i) If a parent, guardian or legal custodian of a child wishes to utilize the power of attorney 40 authorized by this section to delegate any powers regarding the care and custody of the child to 41 another person, the qualified nonprofit organization shall conduct a criminal history and federal 42 and state background check on the person to whom powers are delegated prior to the execution
43 of the power of attorney. The criminal history and federal and state background check shall be 44 paid for by the qualified nonprofit organization, the parent, guardian or legal custodian, or the 45 parent's designee. Additionally, the qualified nonprofit organization shall train the designee in the 46 rights, duties, and limitations associated with providing care for a child under this section, 47 including the prevention and reporting of suspected child abuse or neglect.

48 (j) The designee may not move from the address listed on the parental rights form without 49 written approval of the parent, guardian or legal custodian.

50 (k) Any person who accepts care and custody of a child pursuant to the provisions of this 51 article shall be deemed a person mandated to report suspected abuse and neglect pursuant to 52 the provisions of section eight hundred three, article two, chapter forty-nine of this code.

53 (l) If a parent, guardian or legal custodian dies or becomes incapacitated, then the 54 provisions of article ten, chapter forty-four of this code shall apply.

55 (m) Nothing in this section is intended, nor shall anything herein be interpreted, to 56 otherwise restrict the rights of custodial parents or non-custodial parents to temporarily delegate 57 or provide for the care and custody of a child, or to assert their right to request custody, in 58 accordance with other provisions of West Virginia law.
