AN ACT to amend the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, by adding thereto a new section, designated §11B-1-8; and to amend said code by adding thereto a new section, designated §17-2A-24, all relating generally to employment procedures of the Division of Highways and the Tax Division of the Department of Revenue; authorizing the Tax Commissioner and the Commissioner of Highways to implement special employment procedures for personnel positions in their respective divisions; making legislative findings; defining terms; establishing requirements for the special employment procedures; exempting Tax Division of the Department of Revenue and Division of Highways from certain other employment procedures; permitting recommendations for new schedules of compensation; exempting Division of Personnel from involvement in certain grievance claims or settlements; directing Division of Personnel to facilitate special employment procedures; requiring Division of Personnel to perform any lawful action necessary to initiate or complete employment transactions of the Division of Highways or the Tax Division under newly established employment procedures; providing for continued application of due process; maintaining efficacy of code provisions prohibiting nepotism, favoritism and discrimination under the special employment procedures; authorizing the Commissioner of Highways and the Tax Commissioner to promulgate emergency rules; and requiring the Commissioner of Highways and the Tax Commissioner to propose legislative rules for the implementation of the special employment procedures authorized for their respective agencies.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, be amended by adding thereto a new section, designated §11B-1-8, and that said code be amended by adding thereto a new section, designated §17-2A-24, all to read as follows:

CHAPTER 11. DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE.
ARTICLE 1. DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE.

§11B-1-8. Special employment procedures for Tax Division personnel.

(a) Legislative findings and intent. —

(1) The Tax Division of the Department of Revenue has approximately one hundred vacancies. The Legislature finds that the division has long had difficulty filling positions which are essential to efficiently and effectively administering, collecting and enforcing the tax laws of this state. The Legislature finds that, to address this problem, the hiring and retention processes of the division must be streamlined to effectively and efficiently meet personnel needs while still affording applicants and employees the due process protections of classified service.

(2) The ratification of the Roads to Prosperity Amendment of 2017 to the Constitution of West Virginia will result in substantially increased funding for roads and highways in the state and the opportunity for in-state and out-of-state contractors to bid on road projects. The need to ensure that all businesses are in compliance with the tax laws of this state will exacerbate the division's staffing shortage.

(3) The purpose of this section is to allow the division to employ qualified applicants in vacant and new personnel positions within the division in a timely manner and to ensure that the division maintains an adequate workforce to effectively and fairly administer, collect and enforce the tax laws of this state.

(b) Definitions. — As used in this section:

by law;

(11) The division is authorized to declare any positions effectively vacant due to employee separations, which were not processed prior to the division being placed under the wvOASIS system, vacant and subject to being filled pursuant to the provisions of this section;

(12) The division shall have the flexibility to utilize all vacant position numbers when posting to fill a vacancy and to post vacant positions utilizing multiple classifications with corresponding job descriptions when the commissioner determines it to be necessary and in the best interest of the division; and

(13) For purposes of this section, a vacancy created when an employee of the division separates or goes on terminal leave may be posted upon receipt of the notice that the employee separated or commenced such leave.

applications or making appointments pursuant to the special procedure authorized by subsection
