1 AN ACT to amend the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, by adding thereto a new section,
2 designated §15A-1-7, relating generally to compliance with judicial discovery
3 requirements in state and federal criminal cases; requiring the Department of Military 4 Affairs and Public Safety and the agencies therewithin to provide to state and federal 5 prosecutors information regarding certain past or present employees called as witnesses
6 for the prosecution who have been previously determined to have engaged in conduct 7 which might reasonably constitute impeachment evidence; requiring disclosure of the 8 employee's name to the prosecuting attorney or United States attorney; limiting the 9 department's or agency's responsibilities to those circumstances wherein the department 10 or agency is on notice that the employee has been subpoenaed or is to be called as a 11 prosecution witness; clarifying that the responsibilities imposed by this section upon the 12 department or agency are met by transmittal of the name to the prosecuting attorney or 13 attorney for the United States; granting immunity to the department and agencies for good 14 faith compliance with the requirement to provide information; and clarifying that the 15 immunity granted by the section is in addition to any other immunities granted under law.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 1. DEFINITIONS; GENERAL PROVISIONS.

§15A-1-7. Compliance with requests for personnel information.

1 (a) Notwithstanding any provision of this code or any rule promulgated thereunder to the 2 contrary, when the Department of Military Affairs and Public Safety or any agency within the 3 department is placed on notice that a past or current employee has been subpoenaed or is to be 4 called as a witness in a criminal proceeding on behalf of the state or federal government, the 5 department, or agency, and the employee has, to the departments' or agencies' knowledge, 6 previously been determined to have engaged in conduct reflecting dishonesty, moral turpitude,
7 bias, prejudice, or other conduct which might reasonably be deemed to constitute impeachment

8 evidence, the department or agency shall provide the name of the employee to the prosecuting
9 attorney or United States attorney representing the state or the United States in the prosecution.

10 (b) The responsibilities of the department and agencies imposed by this section are met 11 by transmittal of the employee name to the prosecuting attorney or attorney for the United States.

12 (c) The Department of Military Affairs and Public Safety and all its officers and employees 13 are immune from any and all liability arising from the good faith release of information under the 14 provisions of this section. The immunity granted by this section shall be in addition to any other 15 immunity now existing or granted under any other provision of this code or common law.

The Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills hereby certifies that the foregoing bill is correctly enrolled.
