1 AN ACT to amend and reenact §8-14-3 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended; and to 2 amend and reenact §8-15-1 of said code, all relating to authorizing municipalities to grant
3 certain fire department employees limited powers of arrest in relation to their duties; setting
4 the limits of their power to arrest; authorizing designated fire department employees to file
5 complaints with appropriate courts; requiring initial and annual training of designated fire
6 department employees as established by the State Fire Commission and the State Fire
7 Marshal.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 14. LAW AND ORDER; POLICE FORCE OR DEPARTMENTS; POWERS, AUTHORITY, AND DUTIES OF LAW-ENFORCEMENT OFFICIALS AND POLICEMEN; POLICE MATRONS; SPECIAL SCHOOL ZONE AND PARKING LOT OR PARKING BUILDING POLICE OFFICERS; CIVIL SERVICE FOR CERTAIN POLICE DEPARTMENTS.

§8-14-3. Powers, authority, and duties of law-enforcement officials and policemen.

1 The chief and any member of the police force or department of a municipality, any 2 municipal sergeant, and any municipal fire marshal shall have all of the powers, authority, rights,
3 and privileges within the corporate limits of the municipality with regard to the arrest of persons,
4 the collection of claims, and the execution and return of any search warrant, warrant of arrest, or 5 other process, which can legally be exercised or discharged by a deputy sheriff of a county:
6 Provided, That any municipal fire marshal granted authority under this section shall have these 7 powers, authority, rights, and privileges only to the limits described in §8-15-1 of this code. In 8 order to arrest for the violation of municipal ordinances and as to all matters arising within the 9 corporate limits and coming within the scope of his or her official duties, the powers of any chief, 10 policeman, municipal fire marshal, or sergeant shall extend anywhere within the county or 11 counties in which the municipality is located, and any chief, policeman, municipal fire marshal, or

12 sergeant shall have the same authority of pursuit and arrest beyond his or her normal jurisdiction 13 as has a sheriff. For an offense committed in his or her presence, any such officer may arrest the 14 offender without a warrant and take the offender before the mayor or police court or municipal 15 court to be dealt with according to law. His or her sureties are liable to all the fines, penalties, and 16 forfeitures which a deputy sheriff is liable to, for any failure or dereliction in such office, to be 17 recovered in the same manner and in the same courts in which the fines, penalties, and forfeitures 18 are recovered against a deputy sheriff. In addition to the mayor, or police court judge or municipal 19 court judge, if any, of a city, the chief of police of any municipality and in the absence from the 20 station house of the chief of police the captains of police and lieutenants of police shall each have 21 authority to administer oaths to complainants and to issue arrest warrants thereon for all violations 22 of the ordinances of the municipality.

23 The mayor and police officers of every municipality and any municipal sergeant shall aid 24 in the enforcement of the criminal laws of the state within the municipality, independently of any 25 charter provision or any ordinance or lack of an ordinance with respect thereto, and to cause the 26 arrest of, or arrest, any offender and take him or her before a magistrate to be dealt with according 27 to the law. Failure on the part of any such official or officer to discharge any duty imposed by the 28 provisions of this section is official misconduct for which he or she may be removed from office.
29 Any official or officer has the same authority to execute a warrant issued by a magistrate, and the 30 same authority to arrest without a warrant for offenses committed in his or her presence, as a 31 deputy sheriff.

32 An officer or member of the police force or department of a municipality may not aid or 33 assist either party in any labor trouble or dispute between employer and employee. They shall in 34 these cases see that the statutes and laws of this state and municipal ordinances are enforced in 35 a legal way and manner. Nor shall he or she engage in off-duty police work for any party engaged 36 in or involved in the labor dispute or trouble between employer and employee.

37 The chief of police shall be charged with the keeping and security of the jail, and at any
