150 of this code: Provided, That if the second conviction is for an offense as described in subsections 151 (b), (c), or (d) of this section and the subsection creating the offense requires a period of 152 incarceration, period of license revocation, or fine that is greater than what is required for a 153 conviction under this subsection, the greater period of incarceration, period of revocation, or fine
154 shall be imposed: Provided, however, That this section does not apply to a second conviction that 155 is subject to a period of license revocation under subsection (j) of this section.

156 (m) A person convicted of an offense under this section, who has previously been

163 That if the third or subsequent conviction is for an offense as described in subsections (b), (c), or 164 (d) of this section and the subsection creating the offense requires a period of incarceration, period 165 of license revocation, or fine that is greater than what is required for a conviction under this

166 subsection, the greater period of incarceration, period of revocation, and fine shall be imposed:
167 Provided, however, That this section does not apply to a third or subsequent conviction that is 168 subject to a period of license revocation under subsection (j) of this section.

169 (n) For purposes of subsections (l) and (m) of this section relating to second, third, and 170 subsequent offenses, the following events shall be regarded as offenses and convictions under 171 this section:

172 (1) Any conviction under the provisions of subsection (b), (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h), or (i) of 173 this section, or under a prior enactment of this section, for an offense which occurred within the 174 10-year period immediately preceding the date of arrest in the current proceeding;

175 (2) Any conviction under a municipal ordinance of this state or any other state or a statute

185 occurred within the applicable time period for prior offenses, notwithstanding the fact that there
186 has not been a final adjudication of the charges for the alleged previous offense. In that case, the 187 warrant or indictment or information must set forth the date, location, and particulars of the 188 previous offense or offenses. No person may be convicted of a second or subsequent offense
189 under this section unless the conviction for the previous offense has become final, or the person 190 has previously had a period of conditional probation imposed pursuant to §17C-5-2b of this code.

191 (p) The fact that any person charged with a violation of subsection (b), (c), (d), (e), (f), or 192 (g) of this section, or any person permitted to drive as described under subsection (h) or (i) of this 193 section, is or has been legally entitled to use alcohol, a controlled substance, or a drug does not 194 constitute a defense against any charge of violating subsection (b), (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h), or (i)

201 thereunder. An order for home detention by the court pursuant to the provisions of §62-11B-1 et 202 seq. of this code may be used as an alternative sentence to any period of incarceration required
203 by this section for a first or subsequent offense: Provided further, That for any period of home 204 incarceration ordered for a person convicted of a second offense under this section, electronic 205 monitoring shall be required for no fewer than five days of the total period of home confinement
206 ordered and the offender may not leave home for those five days notwithstanding the provisions
207 of §62-11B-5 of this code: And provided further, That for any period of home incarceration ordered

213 comprehensive safety and treatment program as set forth in §17C-5A-3 of this code before his or 214 her license to operate a motor vehicle can be reinstated and his or her driving privileges restored.

215 (s) For any offense for which an alternative revocation period is permitted conditioned
216 upon participation in the test and lock program, an alternative sentence may not be imposed 217 without the consent of the driver.

218 (t) Upon entering the order of conviction for an offense under this section, or the imposition 219 of conditional probation as provided in §17C-5-2b of this code, the clerk of the court shall 220 immediately transmit the order to the Commissioner of the Division of Motor Vehicles.

221 (u) The amendments made to this section during the 2020 regular session of the 222 Legislature shall become effective on July 1, 2020.
