AN ACT to amend the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, by adding thereto a new section, designated §46A-4-114, relating to permitting employees of regulated consumer lenders to conduct work at their residence if certain requirements are met.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

Any regulated consumer lender activity conducted by an employee of the West Virginia licensee shall be considered, reported, and regulated as loans of the West Virginia licensee, regardless of the employee’s location during the activity.

1. No in-person customer interactions will be conducted at the other location;
2. The other location is not designated as a business location to consumers or customers;
3. Appropriate data security and privacy safeguards are in place for licensee and consumer data, information, and records at the other location, including, but not limited to, the use and maintenance of secure virtual private networks and maintenance of appropriate security updates, patches, or other alterations to ensure the security of electronic devices;
4. Appropriate risk-based monitoring and oversight processes of work performed by the employees of a licensee at the other location are in place, and records of such monitoring and processes are maintained;
(5) No consumer information or records are maintained at the other location;

(6) All consumer and licensee information and records remain accessible and available for regulatory oversight and examinations;

(7) Employees are trained and keep confidential all conversations about, and with, consumers that may be conducted at the other location; and

(8) The other location is a safe and secure workplace for employees.

(c) A licensee, prior to authorizing work at a location other than the licensee's designated place of business, shall establish written policies and procedures to ensure compliance with the requirements of subsection (b) of this section.

(d) A licensee that authorizes work at another location pursuant to this section shall:

(1) Periodically review and document compliance with the provisions of this section and the written policies and procedures established pursuant to subsection (c) of this section as it relates to every employee who works at another location; and

(2) Certify annually to the commissioner that the provisions of this section have been met as to each employee working at another location.
