1 AN ACT to amend and reenact §3-7-3, §3-7-6, and §3-7-7 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as 2 amended, all relating to contested elections procedure update; changing jurisdiction of 3 election contests for county, district, and municipal elections to the circuit courts; requiring 4 a recount proceeding to be completed before filing certain election contests; providing 5 certain procedural requirements for election contests before circuit courts; providing for 6 appeals of a decision made by a circuit court in an election contest be made to the 7 Supreme Court of Appeals; and granting rule-making authority to the Supreme Court of 8 Appeals regarding election contests before circuit courts.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 7. CONTESTED ELECTIONS.

§3-7-3. Contests before special court; procedure; enforcement.

1 (a) Where the election of Secretary of State, Auditor, Treasurer, Attorney General,
2 Commissioner of Agriculture, a justice of the Supreme Court of Appeals, a judge of the 3 Intermediate Court of Appeals, a judge of a circuit court, or a judge of a family court is contested,
4 the case shall be heard and decided by a special court constituted as follows:

5 (1) The contestee shall select one, the contestant another, and the Governor a third
6 person, who shall preside in said court; and the three, or any two of them, shall meet at a time
7 and place within the state to be appointed by the Governor, and, being first duly sworn impartially
8 to decide according to law and the truth upon the petition, returns, and evidence to be submitted 9 to them, shall proceed to hear, and determine the case and certify their decision thereon to the 10 Governor. They shall be entitled to $10 a day each, and the same mileage as members of the 11 Legislature, to be paid out of the treasury of the state, and the special court may employ a 12 stenographer at a reasonable compensation, to be also paid out of the treasury of the state.

13 (2) In all hearings or proceedings before the special court, the evidence of witnesses and 14 the production of documentary evidence may be required at any designated place of hearing by 15 the special court, or any member thereof.

16 (3) If there is disobedience to a subpoena or other process of the special court, or any 17 member thereof, the special court, or any member thereof, or either of the parties to the contest, 18 may invoke the aid of any circuit court in requiring the evidence and testimony of witnesses and 19 the production of papers, books, and documents. And the circuit court, in case of a refusal to obey 20 the subpoena issued to any person, shall issue an order requiring that person to appear before 21 the special court and produce all books and papers, if so ordered, and give evidence touching the 22 matter in question. Any failure to obey the order of the circuit court may be punished by the court
23 as a contempt thereof. A written record shall be kept of all testimony and other proceedings before 24 the special court.

25 (4) Either party to the contest aggrieved by the final decision of the special court may 26 present his or her petition in writing to the Supreme Court of Appeals, or a justice thereof in 27 vacation, within 30 days after the final decision is certified to the Governor, as hereinbefore
28 provided, praying for the suspension, setting aside, or vacation of the final decision. The applicant 29 shall deliver, or cause to be delivered, a copy of the petition to the other party to the contest, or,
30 in case of his or her absence from the state or from his or her usual place of abode, the applicant
31 shall mail, or cause to be mailed a copy of the petition addressed to his or her last known post-
32 office address, before presenting the petition to the court, or the justice. The court, or the justice, 33 shall fix a time for the hearing on the application, but the hearing may not be held sooner than 34 five days, unless by agreement of the parties, after the presentation of the petition, and notice of 35 the time and place of the hearing shall be forthwith delivered to the other party to the contest, or,
36 in case of absence from the state or from his or her usual place of abode, the notice may be given 37 by mailing, or causing to be mailed, the notice, or a copy thereof, addressed to him or her at his 38 or her last known post-office address. If the court, or the justice, after the hearing, is of the opinion 39 that a suspending order should issue, the court, or the justice in his or her, discretion, may 40 suspend the final decision and may require bond upon such conditions and in such penalty, and 41 impose such terms and conditions upon the petitioner, as are just and reasonable; and the court,

42 or the justice, shall fix a time for the final hearing on the application. The hearing of the matter
43 shall take precedence over all other matters before the court. For the final hearing, and before
44 the day fixed therefor, the special court shall file with the clerk of the Supreme Court of Appeals 45 all papers, documents, testimony, evidence, and records, or certified copies thereof, which were 46 before it at the hearing resulting in the final decision from which the petitioner appeals, together
47 with a copy in writing of its final decision; and, after argument by counsel, the court shall decide 48 the matter in controversy, both as to the law and the evidence, as it determines to be just and 49 right.

50 (b) The Supreme Court of Appeals shall enforce the provisions of this section by writ of 51 prohibition, mandamus, certiorari or other appropriate mechanism.

§3-7-6. County and district contests; notices; time.

1 (a) In all cases of contested elections, the circuit court with jurisdiction over the county or 2 district where the election took place shall be the judge of the election, qualifications, and returns
3 of all county, district, and municipal officers.

4 (b) An election contest challenging the election of any person to any county, district, or 5 municipal office, including the office of magistrate, must be brought within 10 days after the 6 election result is certified. An election contest shall be filed as a civil action in the circuit court with 7 jurisdiction over the county or district where the election took place.

8 (c) For an election contest challenging specific votes cast, votes rejected, or voters who 9 participated in the election, the recount procedure set forth in §3-6-9 of this code is a prerequisite 10 to the initiation of an election contest and that procedure and any related proceeding must be 11 completed prior to the filing of an election contest on those grounds.

12 (d) For an election contest challenging an elected candidate's eligibility, the legality of the 13 election, or fraud, an election contest civil action can be initiated without the completion of the 14 recount procedure set forth in §3-6-9 of this code.

§3-7-7. Circuit court to hear county, district, and municipal contests; procedure; review.

1 (a) The circuit court with jurisdiction over the county or district where the election took 2 place shall hear and decide election contests initiated pursuant to §3-7-6 of this code.

3 (b) At the trial of the contest, the circuit court shall hear all legal and proper evidence that 4 may be brought before it by either party, and may, if considered necessary, require the production
5 of the poll books, certificates, and ballots deposited with the county clerk or municipal recorder or 6 clerk, and examine the same.

7 (c) A contestant has the burden of proof in an election contest.

8 (d) At the conclusion of the trial of the contest, the circuit court shall direct that a certified 9 copy of the order declaring the result of the contest shall be delivered by the clerk of the circuit
10 court wherein the contest was held to the parties.

11 (e) An appeal of the decision of the circuit court shall be to the Supreme Court of Appeals.

12 (f) The Supreme Court of Appeals, exercising the rule-making power granted by §51-1-4 13 of this code, may promulgate rules and regulations consistent with this article governing the 14 pleadings, practice, and procedure to be employed during county, district, and municipal election 15 contests in the courts of this state.

The Clerk of the Senate and the Clerk of the House of Delegates hereby certify that the foregoing bill is correctly enrolled.
