1 The West Virginia Department of Tourism, previously continued from the West Virginia

3 branch of state government. All references in this code to the Division of Tourism or to the West
4 Virginia Tourism Office shall be construed as references to the West Virginia Department of 5 Tourism. As used in this article, "department" means the Department of Tourism.

§5B-2I-4. Powers and duties of the Department of Tourism.

1 (a) The Department of Tourism, under the direction and charge of the secretary, shall
2 develop and implement a comprehensive tourism advertising, promotion, and development

(5) Distribute West Virginia informational publications and manage the West Virginia Welcome Centers; and

(6) Coordinate programs, initiatives, and production of materials relating to the branding and marketing of the state, and its departments and agencies, and to provide greater coherence in such programs, initiatives, and materials across the departments and agencies of the state.

(b) In developing its strategies, plans and campaigns, the department shall consider the following:

(1) Improvement and expansion of existing tourism marketing and promotion activities;

(2) Promotion of cooperation among municipalities, counties and the West Virginia Infrastructure and Jobs Development Council in funding physical infrastructure to enhance the potential for tourism development.

(c) The Department of Tourism shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) To acquire for the state in the name of the department by purchase, lease, or agreement, or to accept or reject for the state, in the name of the department, gifts, donations, contributions, bequests or devises of money, security or property, both real and personal, and any interest in such property, to effectuate or support the purposes of this article;

(2) To make recommendations to the Governor and the Legislature of any legislation deemed necessary to facilitate the carrying out of any of the foregoing powers and duties and to exercise any other power that may be necessary or proper for the orderly conduct of the business of the department and the effective discharge of the duties of the department;

(3) To cooperate and assist in the production of motion pictures and television and other communications;

(4) To purchase advertising time or space in or upon any medium generally engaged or employed for said purpose to advertise and market the resources of the state or to inform the public at large or any specifically targeted group or industry about the benefits of living in, investing in, producing in, buying from, contracting with, or in any other way related to, the State of West Virginia or any business, industry, agency, institution, or other entity therein;

(5) To promote and disseminate information related to the attractions of the state through the operation of the state's telemarketing initiative, which telemarketing initiative shall include a centralized reservation and information system for state parks and recreational facilities;

(d) The Department of Tourism may contract with the Division of Highways to sell advertising space on the WV511 website to promote in-state tourism and raise capital for technological improvements to the website: Provided, That 50 percent of the money collected for sale of advertising space is deposited into the Tourism Promotion Fund and the other 50 percent of the money collected from the sale of advertising space is remitted to the Division of Highways pursuant to the contract.

63 (e) The Department of Tourism may charge and collect reasonable fees for goods and 64 services it provides to state agencies, departments, units of state or local government or other 65 person, entity, or enterprise. All moneys collected by the department shall be deposited in the 66 Tourism Promotion Fund and used in accordance with the provisions of this article.

67 (f) The Department of Tourism may engage and retain one or more advertising and 68 marketing agencies, consultants, enterprises, firms, or persons, as deemed by the secretary, in 69 his or her sole discretion, necessary or advisable to assist the department in carrying out its 70 powers and duties as set forth in this article. In the procurement of advertising agencies, 71 consultants, enterprises, or persons, from time to time, estimated to cost $250,000 or more, the

78 secretary, shall evaluate the statements of qualifications and other materials submitted by 79 interested firms and select three firms which, in their opinion, are best qualified to perform the 80 desired service. The committee shall then rank, in order of preference, the three firms selected
81 and shall commence scope of service and price negotiations with the first-ranked firm. If the 82 department is unable to negotiate a satisfactory contract with the first-ranked firm, at a fee
83 determined to be fair and reasonable, price negotiations with the firm of second choice shall 84 commence. Failing accord with the second-ranked firm, the committee shall undertake price
85 negotiations with the third-ranked firm. If the department is unable to negotiate a satisfactory
86 contract with any of the selected firms, the office shall select additional firms in order of their 87 competence and qualifications and it shall continue negotiations in accordance with this section
88 until an agreement is reached.

89 If the procurement of the services is estimated by the secretary to cost less than $250,000,
90 the department shall conduct discussions with three or more firms solicited on the basis of known
91 or submitted qualifications for the assignment prior to the awarding of any contract: Provided,
92 That if a judgment is made that special circumstances exist and that seeking competition is not 93 practical, the department may select a firm on the basis of previous satisfactory performance and 94 knowledge of the department's needs. After selection, the department and selected firm shall 95 develop the scope of desired services and negotiate a contract.

96 (g) The secretary of the Department of Tourism may, in order to carry out the powers and

108 state grievance procedures will continue to have access to the state grievance procedures as 109 long as they remain in their current position; and

110 (2) Any employee of the Department of Tourism that leaves his or her position and remains
111 an employee within the Department of Tourism shall, at that time, be transferred to the classified-
112 exempt service system as defined in §29-6-2(g) of this code and be exempted from the state
113 grievance procedures as set forth in §6C-2-1 et seq. of this code.

(i) The secretary shall have the authority to designate certain employees' status under the classified civil service system and grievance procedures as may be deemed necessary to comply with federal regulation, or the requirements for receipt of federal funding or assistance.

(k) Subsection (h) of this section shall not apply to any position appointed by the Governor.

(l) Nothing in this section shall exempt the Department of Tourism from the provisions of this code prohibiting nepotism, favoritism, discrimination, or unethical practices related to the promotion, transfer, layoff, removal, discipline, and compensation of state employees.
