44 (21) Any nuclear reactor and its associated components including, but not limited to,
45 components related to modular or microreactors, cooling technologies, sensors, instrumentation,
46 or storage involved in training or research opportunities;

47 (22) Any licensed livestock stockyard facility; any licensed livestock slaughter facility; or 48 any commercial poultry production and processing facility; or

49 (23) The hardware, software, or other digital property of any critical infrastructure facility
50 listed in this subsection.

51 (c)(1) Any person who willfully and knowingly trespasses or enters property containing a
52 critical infrastructure facility without permission by the owner of the property or lawful occupant
53 thereof is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not 54 less than $250 nor more than $1,000, or confined in jail not less than 30 days nor more than one
55 year, or both fined and confined. If the intent of the trespasser is to willfully damage, destroy,
56 vandalize, deface, tamper with the physical or digital equipment, or impede or inhibit operations
57 of the critical infrastructure facility, the person is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction
58 thereof, shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $1,000, or confined in a jail for not more 59 than one year, or both fined and confined.

60 (2) (A) Any person who willfully damages, destroys, vandalizes, defaces, or tampers with 61 the physical or digital equipment in a critical infrastructure facility causing damage, including 62 damage inflicted by cyber-attack or digital interference in excess of $2,500 is guilty of a felony
63 and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than $3,000 nor more than $10,000, or 64 imprisoned in a state correctional facility for a term of not less than one year nor more than five 65 years, or both fined and imprisoned.

66 (B) Any person convicted of a second offense under the provisions of this subdivision is 67 guilty of a felony and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than $10,000 nor more than 68 $15,000, or imprisoned in a state correctional facility for a term of not less than two years nor 69 more than 10 years, or both fined and imprisoned.

(3) Any person who conspires with any person to commit the offense of trespass against a critical infrastructure facility in violation of subdivision (1) of subsection (c) of this section and the trespass actually occurs is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined in an amount of not less than $250 nor more than $1,000. Any person who conspires with any person to willfully damage, destroy, vandalize, deface, or tamper with equipment in a critical infrastructure facility and the damage, destruction, vandalization, defacing, or tampering causes damage, including damage inflicted by cyber-attack or digital interference in excess of $2,500 is guilty of a felony and, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not less than $3,000 nor more than $10,000.

(d)(1) Any person who is arrested for or convicted of an offense under this section may be held civilly liable for any damages to personal or real property while trespassing, in addition to the penalties imposed by this section.

(2) Any person or entity that compensates, provides consideration to, or remunerates a person for trespassing as described in subdivision (1) of subsection (c) of this section may also be held liable for damages to personal or real property committed by the person compensated or remunerated for trespassing.

(e) A person who buys or receives from another person, aids in concealing, transfers to a person other than the owner thereof, or possesses any stolen goods or other thing of value from a critical infrastructure facility, which he or she knows or has reason to believe has been stolen from a critical infrastructure facility, is guilty of larceny, and may be prosecuted although the principal offender has not been convicted: Provided, That possession of stolen goods from a critical infrastructure facility while acting at the request of law enforcement or in cooperation with law enforcement does not constitute a violation of this section. Any person convicted of an offense under this subsection, in addition the criminal penalties imposed for larceny, is liable to the critical infrastructure facility owner for compensatory damages and, in addition, for punitive damages in an amount not less than three times the amount of the compensatory damages.

(f) The provisions of §61-10-34(c)(1) of this code do not apply to any person or organization:

(1) Monitoring or attentive to compliance with public or worker safety laws, or, wage and hour requirements;

(2) Picketing at the workplace that is otherwise lawful and arises out of a bona fide labor dispute, including any controversy concerning wages, salaries, hours, working conditions, or benefits, including health and welfare, sick leave, insurance, and pension or retirement provisions, the managing or maintenance of collective bargaining agreements, and the terms to be included in those agreements; or

(3) Engaging in union organizing or recruitment activities, including attempting to reach workers verbally, in writing with pamphlets, and investigation of non-union working conditions, or both.

(g) The provisions of this section do not apply to:

(1) The right to free speech or assembly including, but not limited to, protesting and picketing; or

(2) A contractor who has a contractual relationship with a critical infrastructure facility and the contractor's employees are acting within their scope of employment performing work at a critical infrastructure facility.

(h)(1) All items of personal property which are used, have been used, or are intended for use in perpetration of theft or damage to infrastructure are subject to forfeiture.

(2) The items of personal property subject to forfeiture include all conveyances, including aircraft, vehicles, or vessels, except that:

(A) A conveyance used by any person as a common carrier in the transaction of business as a common carrier may not be forfeited under this section unless it appears that the person owning the conveyance is a consenting party or privy to a violation of this section;

121 (B) A conveyance may not be forfeited under the provisions of this article, unless the state
122 proves by a preponderance of the evidence that the person owning the conveyance knew, or had 123 reason to know, that the conveyance was being employed or was likely to be employed in a 124 violation of this section; and

125 (C) A bona fide security interest or other valid lien in any conveyance may not be forfeited
126 under the provisions of this article, unless the state proves by a preponderance of the evidence 127 that the holder of the security interest or lien either knew, or had reason to know, that the 128 conveyance was being used or was likely to be used in a violation of this section.

129 (3) All procedures relating to the seizure and disposition of property subject to forfeiture
130 under the authority of this section are governed by the applicable provisions of the West Virginia
131 Contraband Forfeiture Act, §60A-7-701 et seq. of this code.

The Clerk of the House of Delegates and the Clerk of the Senate hereby certify that the foregoing bill is correctly enrolled.
