OFFICE OF WEST VIRGINIA
SECRETARY OF STATE

2025 APR 30 P 11:16

FILED

1 AN ACT to amend the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, by adding two new articles,
2 designated §5-33-1, §5-33-2, §5-33-3, §18B-1G-1, §18B-1G-2, §18B-1G-3, §18B-1G-4,
3 and §18B-1G-5; and to amend the code by adding five new sections, designated §18-2-
4 9b, §18-5-29, §18-5-50, §18B-14-5, and §18B-14-6, relating to the elimination of diversity,
5 equity, and inclusion programs, trainings, activities, offices, and officers from the executive
6 branch, primary and secondary schools, and institutions of higher education of the state;
7 setting forth legislative findings; defining terms; providing for a complaint and appeals
8 process for parents and guardians of students aggrieved under the bill; requiring reporting 9 from school principals, county superintendents, and the state superintendent; providing 10 county board and public charter school employees with immunity from civil liability;
11 allowing for county boards to operate legal compliance offices; requiring institutions of 12 higher education to report on its efforts to eliminate diversity, equity, and inclusion 13 programs and offices; and requiring state institutions of higher education to reallocate any 14 unexpended funds that would have been expended on diversity, equity, and inclusion 15 projects.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

CHAPTER 5. GENERAL POWERS AND AUTHORITY OF THE GOVERNOR, SECRETARY OF STATE, AND ATTORNEY GENERAL;
BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS; MISCELLANEOUS AGENCIES, COMMISSIONS, OFFICES, PROGRAMS, ETC.

ARTICLE 33. EQUAL TREATMENT BY EXECUTIVE BRANCH ACT OF 2025.

§5-33-1. Legislative findings.

1 The purpose of this article is to ensure that the various departments, divisions, agencies,
2 and boards of the State of West Virginia are treating individuals as equals under the law with 3 respect to recruitment, hiring, promotion, and training.

§5-33-2. Definitions.

As used in this article:

(1) "Diversity, equity, and inclusion" means any action, attempt, or effort to:

(A) Influence hiring or employment practices with respect to race, color, sex, ethnicity, or national origin, other than through the use of color-blind and sex-neutral hiring processes in accordance with any applicable state and federal anti-discrimination laws;

(B) Promote or provide special benefits to individuals on the basis of race, color, ethnicity, or national origin;

(C) Promote policies or procedures designed or implemented in reference to race, color, ethnicity, or national origin, other than to ensure compliance with an applicable court order or state or federal law; or

(D) Conduct trainings, programs, or activities designed or implemented in reference to race, color, ethnicity, or national origin, other than trainings, programs, or activities developed for the sole purpose of ensuring compliance with an applicable court order or state or federal law;

(2) "Ethnic group" means a category of population that is set apart and bound together by common ties of race, language, nationality, or culture;

(3) "Race" means any one of the groups that humans are often divided into based on physical traits regarded as common among people of shared ancestry; and

(4) "Sex", when this term is used to classify or describe a natural person, means the state of being either male or female as observed or clinically verified at birth. There are only two sexes, and every individual is either male or female: Provided, That individuals with congenital and medically verifiable "DSD conditions" (sometimes referred to as "differences in sex development", "disorders in sex development", or "intersex conditions") are not members of a third sex and must be accommodated consistent with state and federal law.

§5-33-3. Prohibition.

(a) No department, division, agency, or board of this state may:

(1) Establish or maintain an office or division or other unit by any name whose purpose, in whole or in part, is the promotion of diversity, equity, and inclusion;

(2) Hire or assign an employee or contract with a third party to promote diversity, equity, and inclusion;

(3) Compel, require, induce, or solicit any person to provide a diversity, equity, and inclusion statement or give preferential consideration to any person based on the provision of a diversity, equity, and inclusion statement;

(4) Give preference on the basis of diversity, equity, and inclusion to an applicant for employment, an employee, or a participant in any function of the office or department; or

(5) Requiring as a condition of employment that an employee participate in diversity, equity, and inclusion training.

(b) Nothing in this article may be construed to abrogate individuals' rights and causes of action under the West Virginia Human Rights Act.

CHAPTER 18. EDUCATION.

ARTICLE 2. STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

§18-2-9b. Equal Treatment in Primary and Secondary Education Act of 2025.

(a) As used in this section:

(1) "Ethnic group" means a category of population that is set apart and bound together by common ties of race, language, nationality, or culture;

(2) "Race" means any one of the groups that humans are often divided into based on physical traits regarded as common among people of shared ancestry; and

(3) "Sex", when this term is used to classify or describe a natural person, means the state of being either male or female as observed or clinically verified at birth. There are only two sexes, and every individual is either male or female: Provided, That individuals with congenital and medically verifiable "DSD conditions" (sometimes referred to as "differences in sex development",

"disorders in sex development", or "intersex conditions") are not members of a third sex and must be accommodated consistent with state and federal law.

(b) A school district, a public charter school, the West Virginia Board of Education, the West Virginia Department of Education, or any employee of the aforementioned entities may not provide instruction in, require instruction in, make part of a course, or require a statement or affirmation by any employee of the following concepts:

(1) One race, ethnic group, or sex is morally or intellectually superior to another race, ethnic group, or sex for any inherent or innate reason;

(2) An individual, by virtue of the individual's race, ethnicity, or sex, is racist, sexist, or oppressive, whether consciously or unconsciously for any inherent or innate reason;

(3) An individual should be discriminated against or receive adverse treatment solely or partly because of the individual's race, ethnicity, or sex;

(4) An individual's moral character is strongly influenced by the individual's race, ethnicity, or sex;

(5) An individual, by virtue of the individual's race, ethnicity, or sex, bears responsibility for actions committed by other members of the same race, ethnic group, or sex;

(6) An individual should feel discomfort, guilt, anguish, or any other form of psychological distress because of the individual's race, ethnicity, or sex; and

(7) Academic achievement, meritocracy, or traits such as a hard work ethic are racist or sexist or were created by members of a particular race, ethnic group, or sex to oppress members of another race, ethnic group, or sex.

(c) Nothing in subsection (b) of this section prohibits:

(1) The discussion of those concepts in theory as part of an academic course if discussion of alternative theories is also included in the course;

(2) The discussion, examination and debate that race, ethnicity, or sex has impacted historical or current events, including the causes of those current or historical events;

(3) The right to freedom of speech protected by the First Amendment of the United States Constitution and the West Virginia Constitution outside the context of employment with any school district or public charter school; and

(4) An office or position operating with the sole and exclusive mission of ensuring legal compliance under Title IX of the federal Education Amendments Act of 1972, 20 U.S.C. §1681 et seq., as amended, the federal Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1972, 20 U.S.C. §1681 et seq., as amended, the federal Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, 42 U.S.C. §12101 et seq., as amended, the federal Civil Rights Act of 1964, Pub. L. No. 88-352, as amended, the West Virginia Human Rights Act, West Virginia Code §5-11-1 et seq., or any other applicable federal or state law or court order.

(d) Any student, parent, or guardian of a student, or employee aggrieved by an alleged violation of this section may file a complaint with the school principal.

(e) Any complainant, upon an adverse ruling or no ruling within 10 business days by the school principal, may file an appeal to the county superintendent except that in the case of a student enrolled in or an employee of a public charter school, the complainant may file an appeal to the authorizer.

(f) Any complainant, upon an adverse ruling or no ruling within 10 business days by the county superintendent or public charter school authorizer, may file an appeal to the State Superintendent. The state superintendent shall make forms available for students, parents or guardians of a student, and employees to file complaints and appeals pursuant to this subsection.

(g) Each school principal shall report the number of complaints filed with him or her the previous school year, the nature of each complaint, and the resolution of each complaint to the county superintendent annually by August 1.

(h) The county superintendent shall report the number of complaints filed in his or her county the previous school year, the nature of each complaint, and the resolution of each complaint to the State Superintendent annually by September 1.

62 (i) The State Superintendent, or his or her designee, shall report to the Legislative 63 Oversight Commission on Education Accountability the number of complaints filed during the 64 previous school year statewide and by county, the nature of each complaint, and the resolution
65 of each complaint annually by October 1.

ARTICLE 5. COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION.

§18-5-29. Preferred gender pronouns.

1 (a) For the purposes of this section: "Sex", when this term is used to classify or describe
2 a natural person, means the state of being either male or female as observed or clinically verified
3 at birth. There are only two sexes, and every individual is either male or female: Provided, That
4 individuals with congenital and medically verifiable "DSD conditions" (sometimes referred to as 5 "differences in sex development", "disorders in sex development", or "intersex conditions") are 6 not members of a third sex and must be accommodated consistent with state and federal law.

7 (b) County board and public charter school employees shall not be:

8 (1) Required to use a student's preferred pronoun when referring to the student if the 9 preferred pronoun is not consistent with the student's sex;

10 (2) Civilly liable for using a pronoun that is consistent with the sex of the student to whom 11 the teacher or employee is referring, even if the pronoun is not the student's preferred pronoun; 12 and

13 (3) Subject to an adverse employment action for not using a student's preferred pronoun
14 if the student's preferred pronoun is inconsistent with the student's sex.

15 (c) A county board or public charter school is not civilly liable if a county board or public
16 charter school employee refers to a student using a pronoun that is consistent with the sex of the 17 student to whom the employee is referring, even if the pronoun is not the student's preferred
18 pronoun.

19 (d) No county board or public charter school may establish a policy or take any action that 20 is contrary to this section.

21 (e) Nothing in this article may be construed to abrogate individuals' rights and causes of 22 action under the West Virginia Human Rights Act.

§18-5-50. Legal compliance offices.

1 Nothing in this article shall preclude a county school board from operating an office or
2 position operating with the sole and exclusive mission of ensuring legal compliance under Title IX
3 of the federal Education Amendments Act of 1972, 20 U.S.C. §1681 et seq., as amended, the 4 federal Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1972, 20 U.S.C. §1681 et seq., as amended,
5 the federal Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, 42 U.S.C. §12101 et seq., as amended, the 6 federal Civil Rights Act of 1964, Pub. L. No. 88-352, as amended, the West Virginia Human Rights
7 Act, West Virginia Code §5-11-1 et seq., or any other applicable federal or state law or court order.

CHAPTER 18B. HIGHER EDUCATION.

ARTICLE 1G. DIVERSITY, EQUITY, AND INCLUSION OFFICES AND OFFICERS PROHIBITED.

§18B-1G-1. Definitions.

1 As used in this section:

2 (1) "Diversity, equity, and inclusion" means any action, attempt, or effort to:

3 (A) Influence hiring or employment practices with respect to race, color, sex, ethnicity, or
4 national origin, other than through the use of color-blind and sex-neutral hiring processes in
5 accordance with any applicable state and federal anti-discrimination laws;

6 (B) Promote or provide special benefits to individuals on the basis of race, color, ethnicity,
7 or national origin;

8 (C) Promote policies or procedures designed or implemented in reference to race, color,
9 ethnicity, or national origin, other than to ensure compliance with an applicable court order or
10 state or federal law; or

(D) Conduct trainings, programs, or activities designed or implemented in reference to race, color, ethnicity, or national origin, other than trainings, programs, or activities developed for the sole purpose of ensuring compliance with an applicable court order or state or federal law.

(2) "Diversity, equity, and inclusion office" means an office, division, or other unity of an institution of higher education tasked with diversity, equity, or inclusion actions, attempts, or efforts;

(3) "Diversity, equity, and inclusion officer" means any officer, employee, or agent of an institution of higher education tasked with diversity, equity, or inclusion actions, attempts, or efforts;

(4) "Ethnic group" means a category of population that is set apart and bound together by common ties of race, language, nationality, or culture;

(5) "Race" means any one of the groups that humans are often divided into based on physical traits regarded as common among people of shared ancestry; and

(6) "Sex", when this term is used to classify or describe a natural person, means the state of being either male or female as observed or clinically verified at birth. There are only two sexes, and every individual is either male or female: Provided, That individuals with congenital and medically verifiable "DSD conditions" (sometimes referred to as "differences in sex development", "disorders in sex development", or "intersex conditions") are not members of a third sex and must be accommodated consistent with state and federal law.

§18B-1G-2. Restrictions.

(a) A state institution of higher education and each governing board of a state institution of higher education shall ensure that each unit of the institution does not:

(1) Establish, sustain, support, staff, or maintain a diversity, equity, and inclusion officer or office;

(2) Hire or assign an employee of the institution or contract with a third party to perform the duties of a diversity, equity, and inclusion office;

(3) Compel, require, induce, or solicit any person to provide a diversity, equity, and inclusion statement or give preferential consideration to any person based on the provision of a diversity, equity, and inclusion statement;

(4) Give preference on the basis of diversity, equity, and inclusion to an applicant for employment, an employee, or a participant in any function of the institution; or

(5) Require as a condition of enrolling at the institution or performing any institution function any person to participate in diversity, equity, and inclusion training.

(b) A state institution of higher education and each governing board of a state institution of higher education shall ensure that each unit of the institution shall adopt policies and procedures for appropriately disciplining, including by termination, an employee or contractor of the institution who engages in conduct in violation of subsection (a) of this section.

(c) Subsection (a) of this section shall not be construed to cover or affect a state institution of higher education's support of any of the following:

(1) Academic course instruction;

(2) Research or creative works by the state institution of higher education's students, faculty, or other research personnel, and the dissemination of such research or creative works;

(3) Activities of registered student organizations;

(4) Arrangements for guest speakers and performers with short-term engagements;

(5) Mental or physical health services provided by licensed professionals;

(6) Services or support provided to individuals with learning, physical or neurological developmental disabilities;

(7) Policies, programing, training, practices, activities, or procedures designed to prevent sexual harassment or to meet accreditation standards;

(8) Data collection;

(9) Sex-based educational opportunities such as science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM) opportunities for women;

(10) Donor-designated scholarships;

(11) Single-sex athletic programs, events, or teams;

(12) Single-sex spaces including restrooms, changing rooms, locker rooms, showers, sleeping quarters, and dorms;

(13) Compliance with the state institution of higher education's obligations under Title IX of the federal Education Amendments Act of 1972, 20 U.S.C. §1681 et seq., as amended, the federal Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1972, 20 U.S.C. §1681 et seq., as amended, the federal Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, 42 U.S.C. §12101 et seq., as amended, the federal Civil Rights Act of 1964, Pub. L. No. 88-352, as amended, the West Virginia Human Rights Act, West Virginia Code §5-11-1 et seq., or any other applicable federal or state law or court order.

§18B-1G-3. Exceptions.

(a) "Diversity, equity, and inclusion office" does not include any of the following:

(1) An office or position operating with the sole and exclusive mission of ensuring legal compliance under Title IX of the federal Education Amendments Act of 1972, 20 U.S.C. §1681 et seq., as amended, the federal Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1972, 20 U.S.C. §1681 et seq., as amended, the federal Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, 42 U.S.C. §12101 et seq., as amended, the federal Civil Rights Act of 1964, Pub. L. No. 88-352, as amended, the West Virginia Human Rights Act, West Virginia Code §5-11-1 et seq., or any other applicable federal or state law or court order;

(2) An academic department within a state institution of higher education that exists primarily for the purpose of offering courses for degree credit and that does not establish a policy or procedures to which other departments of the public institutions of higher education are subject;

(3) A registered student organization;

(4) An office or position engaged in providing services or support to individuals with learning, physical or neurological developmental disabilities; or

15 (5) A unit which may provide resources to certain individuals as long as the resources are 16 equally available to all employees or students regardless of race, color, or ethnicity.

17 (b) "Diversity, equity, and inclusion officer" does not include any of the following:

18 (1) Any employee whose sole job duties are to ensure compliance with the state institution
19 of higher education's obligations under Title IX of the federal Education Amendments Act of 1972,
20 20 U.S.C. §1681 et seq., as amended, the federal Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1972,
21 20 U.S.C. §1681 et seq., as amended, the federal Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, 42
22 U.S.C. §12101 et seq., as amended, the federal Civil Rights Act of 1964, Pub. L. No. 88-352, as 23 amended, the West Virginia Human Rights Act, West Virginia Code §5-11-1 et seq., or any other
24 applicable federal or state law or court order;

25 (2) Any faculty member while engaged in teaching, research, or the production of creative
26 works, the dissemination of the faculty member's research or creative works, or advising a 27 registered student organization; or

28 (3) A guest speaker or performer with a short-term engagement.

29 (c) Nothing in this article may be construed to limit or prohibit an institution of higher
30 education or an employee of an institution of higher education from, for purposes of applying for 31 a grant or complying with the terms of accreditation by an accrediting agency, submitting to the 32 grantor or accrediting agency a statement that:

33 Highlights the institution's work in supporting:

34 (A) First-generation college students;

35 (B) Low-income students; or

36 (C) Underserved student populations.

§18B-1G-4. Reporting.

1 (a) A state institution of higher education shall file and certify with the Joint Committee on
2 Education a report of the steps taken by the academic institution of higher education and its staff,
3 administration, and faculty to comply with this article.

4 (b) The state institution of higher education shall publish the report described in subsection
5 (a) of this section on the institution of higher education's webpage.

6 (c) The state institution of higher education shall file the report described in subsection (a)
7 of this section by July 1, 2025, and on July 1 of each year thereafter, or the state institution of 8 higher education shall not be permitted to expend any moneys appropriated by the Legislature
9 for the next fiscal year.

§18B-1G-5. Spending.

1 A state institution of higher education shall reallocate any and all unexpended moneys
2 appropriated by the Legislature in fiscal year 2025-2026 that would have been expended on 3 prohibited diversity, equity, and inclusion offices and officers on or after the effective date of this
4 article to merit scholarships for lower-income and middle-income students, first generation college
5 students, or to reduce tuition and mandatory fees for resident students.

ARTICLE 14. MISCELLANEOUS.

§18B-14-5. Equal Treatment in Higher Education Act of 2025.

1 (a) As used in this section:

2 (1) "Diversity, equity, and inclusion" means any action, attempt, or effort to:

3 (A) Influence hiring or employment practices with respect to race, color, sex, ethnicity, or
4 national origin, other than through the use of color-blind and sex-neutral hiring processes in
5 accordance with any applicable state and federal anti-discrimination laws;

6 (B) Promote or provide special benefits to individuals on the basis of race, color, ethnicity,
7 or national origin;

8 (C) Promote policies or procedures designed or implemented in reference to race, color,
9 ethnicity, or national origin, other than to ensure compliance with an applicable court order or
10 state or federal law; or

(D) Conduct trainings, programs, or activities designed or implemented in reference to race, color, ethnicity, or national origin, other than trainings, programs, or activities developed for the sole purpose of ensuring compliance with an applicable court order or state or federal law;

(2) "Ethnic group" means a category of population that is set apart and bound together by common ties of race, language, nationality, or culture;

(3) "Race" means any one of the groups that humans are often divided into based on physical traits regarded as common among people of shared ancestry; and

(5) "Sex", when this term is used to classify or describe a natural person, means the state of being either male or female as observed or clinically verified at birth. There are only two sexes, and every individual is either male or female: Provided, That individuals with congenital and medically verifiable "DSD conditions" (sometimes referred to as "differences in sex development", "disorders in sex development", or "intersex conditions") are not members of a third sex and must be accommodated consistent with state and federal law.

(b) State institutions of higher education in this state have an obligation to prohibit, among other things, discrimination on the basis of race or ethnic group in the administration of their education programs, activities, or with respect to admission or employment.

(c) State institutions of higher education have an obligation to protect the right to free speech and expression protected by the First Amendment of the United States Constitution, the West Virginia Constitution, and the provisions of §18B-20-1 et seq. As part of that commitment, state institutions of higher education must be committed to the principle that debate or deliberation may not be suppressed because the ideas put forth are thought by some or even by most members of the university community to be offensive, unwise, immoral, or misguided and that it is for the individual members of the university community, not for the university as an institution, to make those judgements for themselves.

(d) Except as provided in subsection (e) of this section, a state institution of higher education or any employee of a state institution of higher education may not require a student or employee to take instruction in, or include in the curriculum of any required course, or require a statement or affirmation by any student or employee that the following concepts are factual and accurate or must be held as a belief of the student or employee:

(1) One race, ethnic group, or sex is morally, or intellectually superior to another race, ethnic group, or sex for any inherent or innate reason;

(2) An individual, by virtue of the individual's race, ethnicity, or sex, is racist, sexist, or oppressive, whether consciously or unconsciously for any inherent or innate reason;

(3) An individual should be discriminated against because of the individual's race, ethnicity, or sex;

(4) An individual's moral character is strongly influenced by the individual's race, ethnicity, or sex;

(5) An individual, by virtue of the individual's race, ethnicity, or sex, bears responsibility for actions committed by other members of the same race, ethnic group, or sex;

(6) An individual has an obligation to feel discomfort, guilt, anguish, or any other form of psychological distress because of the individual's race, ethnicity, or sex; and

(7) Academic achievement, meritocracy, or traits such as a hard work ethic are racist or sexist or were created by members of a particular race, ethnic group, or sex to oppress members of another race, ethnic group, or sex.

(e) Nothing in subsection (d) of this section prohibits:

(1) The discussion of those concepts in theory as part of an academic course if discussion of alternative theories is also included in the course;

(2) The discussion, examination, and debate that race, ethnicity, or sex has impacted historical or current events, including the causes of those current or historical events; and

(3) The right to freedom of speech protected by the First Amendment of the United States Constitution and the West Virginia Constitution.

62 (f) Each campus shall report to the Higher Education Policy Commission or the Council
63 for Community and Technical College Education, as applicable, a description of any violations of 64 this section. The description shall include the nature of each incident, as well as what disciplinary 65 action, if any, was taken against members of the campus community determined to be responsible
66 for those specific incidents of violation and shall be reported without revealing personally
67 identifiable information annually, by August 1. The commission and council shall then report to 68 the Legislative Oversight Commission on Education Accountability any violations reported to them
69 pursuant to this subsection.

§18B-14-6. Nondiscrimination.

1 (a) It is the policy of the state that the administrations of state institutions of higher
2 education, and their administrative units, be officially neutral with regard to widely contested
3 opinions in the state regarding unconscious or implicit bias, cultural appropriation, identity group
4 allyship, micro aggressions, group marginalization, systemic oppression, social justice,
5 intersectionality, neo-pronouns, racial privilege, critical race theory, and any related formulation
6 of these concepts.

7 (b) "Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Training" means:

8 (1) Training toward any diversity, equity, and inclusion activity which seeks to:

9 (A) Manipulate or otherwise influence the composition of the faculty or student body with 10 reference to race, color, sex, ethnicity, or national origin, apart from ensuring colorblind and sex-
11 neutral admissions and hiring in accordance with state and federal anti-discrimination laws;

12 (B) Engage in, or promote or promulgate for, differential attention to, treatment of, or 13 provision of special benefits to, individuals or groups on the basis of race, color, ethnicity, or 14 national origin except where permitted by law; or

15 (C) Promote as the official position of the institution or component thereof, or of the 16 administration, or develop or engage in training, programming, or activities promoting, a widely

17 contested opinion in contravention of the neutral educational policy of this state as described in 18 subsection (a) of this section; or

19 (2) Training from an administrative official or administrative unit of an institution that 20 involves one or more of the following interrelated concepts:

21 (A) The nation, the state, American or state culture, society in general is based on or 22 significantly influence by present-day institutional structures or relations of power, privilege,
23 subordination, or oppression that operate on the basis of race, sex, color, ethnicity, national origin,
24 or any intersection of these classes;

25 (B) Special benefits should be conferred on the basis of race, color, ethnicity, or national 26 origin; or

27 (C) Unconscious or implicit bias, cultural appropriation, identity group allyship, 28 microaggressions, micro-invalidating, group marginalization, systemic oppression, structural
29 racism, structural inequity, racial privilege, social justice, intersectionality, neo-pronouns, inclusive
30 language, or related formulation of these concepts.

31 (c) No diversity statement shall ever be required or solicited as part of an admissions
32 process, employment application process, hiring process, contract renewal process, or promotion
33 process; or as a condition of participation in any administrative or decision-making function of any 34 public institution of higher education.

35 (d) No public institution of higher education shall give preferential consideration to an 36 applicant, student, staff member, or faculty member due to any opinion expressed or action taken 37 in support of another individual or a group of individuals on the basis of race, color, ethnicity, or 38 national origin.

The Clerk of the Senate and the Clerk of the House of Delegates hereby certify that the foregoing bill is correctly enrolled.
