1 AN ACT to amend and reenact §20-2-47 of the Code of West Virginia, 1931, as amended, relating
2 to licenses for private game farm for propagating animals and birds for commercial
3 purposes.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

ARTICLE 2. WILDLIFE RESOURCES.

§20-2-47. License for private game farm for propagating animals and birds for commercial purposes.

1 (a) The director may issue a license for the operation of a private game preserve for
2 propagation of wild animals and wild birds for commercial purposes. The license shall authorize
3 the holder to breed or raise animals and birds as specified by the license, to sell the same dead
4 or alive, or to sell the eggs of birds in accordance with regulations prescribed by the director.

5 (b) Application for a license under this section shall designate the property whereon the 6 preserve is to be established. Before the license is issued, the director shall determine that the 7 property is properly enclosed, that the provisions for housing and sanitation are proper and
8 adequate, and that the safety of the public is protected.

9 (c) The annual license fee shall be $10.

10 (d) (1) For purposes of this section, domesticated poultry possessed for agricultural
11 purposes are not considered wild birds and are not subject to the licensure requirements for a
12 private game preserve. Any quail or partridge that will be released into the wild are not possessed
13 for agricultural purposes and are not exempt from said licensure requirements.

14 (2) As used in this subsection:

15 (A) "Domesticated poultry" means non-native quail or partridge.

16 (B) "Agricultural purposes" means use of domesticated poultry for purposes including, but 17 not limited to, meat and egg production, propagation for meat and egg production, and sales for 18 meat and egg production.

The Clerk of the Senate and the Clerk of the House of Delegates hereby certify that the foregoing bill is correctly enrolled.
